

GOTH CHICK APPRECIATION DAY! OCTOBER 13th 2011

Annual holiday observed in the Foamian Islands. Goth Chick Appreciation Day is meant to signify the value of Goth chicks everywhere and acknowledge their no-nonsense attitude & artistic sensibilities. Festivals include such activities as poetry readings, paintings, and a yearly cheerleader sacrifice to the Dark Goddess. Appreciate Goth Chicks... or be forever cursed. (Gifts of appreciation may be given in the form of hair dye, chocolate, leather, candles, music, oils, incense & most importantly; making eye-contact while talking to them even though their hot cleavage may be right in your face.) Observe this day locally, even if it's only on a personal level. Plan your festivals now!
(Cheerleader sacrifice may be substituted with a Pinata. Not as fun, but less messy and zero liability)